

Entrance: Hymn No. 151

(Tune Crimond Hymn No. 553)

1. 'Forgive our sins as we forgive', you taught us Lord to pray;
But you alone can grant us grace to live the words we say

2. How can your pardon reach and bless, the unforgiving heart that broods on wrongs and will not let old bitterness depart?

3. In blazing light your Cross reveals, the truth we dimly knew:
what tri-vial debts that we are owed, how great our debt to you!

4. Lord, cleanse the depths within our souls,
and bid resentment cease.
Then, bound to all in bonds of love, our lives will spread your peace.

1. Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness,
and all these things shall be added unto you; allelu, alleluia

Al -le-lu ia (x3) Al -le-lu, Al -le-lu-ia,

2. You shall not live by bread alone, but by ev'ry word that proceeds from the mouth of God; allelu, alleluia.
3. Ask and it shall be given unto you, seek and ye shall find;
knock, and it shall be opened unto you; allelu, alleluia.

Recessional:

1. He who would valiant be
'gainst all disaster,
let him in constancy
follow the Master.
There's no discouragement shall make him once relent his first avowed intent to be a pilgrim.
2. Who so beset him round with dismal stories, do but themselves confound—his strength the more is.
No foes shall stay his might,
though he with giants fight;
he will make good his right to be a pilgrim.
3. Since, Lord, Thou dost defend us with Thy Spirit, we know we at the end
shall life inherit.
Then, fancies, flee away!
I'll fear not what men say,
I'll labour night and day
to be a pilgrim.
